PROF. RITA HIRNER-LILL - GERMANY

Born in Austria from German parents the mezzosoprano Rita Hirner-Lill studied first piano until Masterclass at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Munich before turning to singing with baritone Karl Schmitt-Walter at the same university. Her stage debut was in 1967 at the Teatro National San Carlos in Lisboa/Portugal, followed by German debut in 1968. 1971-1974 she was a member of the Stuttgart State Opera with a wide range of repertory from baroque to contemporary music. Guest performances led her to important opera houses: La Scala/Milano, Opera Roma and Torino (Radio RAI), Munich State Opera, Vienna State Opera. Among others she also sang in festivals Mozart Requiem, Verdi Requiem, Rossini Rezitals and Bach oratorios.

After marriage and birth of a daughter she began teaching at the Munich University of Music and Performing Arts and at the Bayerische Theaterakademie August Everding. Since 1979 until now under her guide new generations of young opera- and concert singers are to be heard in many national and international opera houses and concert halls for example: La Scala, Met, Covent Garden, Bayreuth Festival, State Operas Munich and Vienna, Glyndebourne, Paris, Madrid, Budapest and Tokyo. During the last ten years 1.prize winners of the most prestigious competitions worldwide like “Operalia Placido Domingo”, “Belvedere”, Vienna, “Vinjas” Barcelona, “Neue Stimmen” are some of these former students, It is always a real pleasure for Rita Hirner-Lill to find new voices and work with them in workshops or masterclasses such as she did at the “Accademia di Montepulciano” in Italy the “Conservatorio Giuseppe Verdi” in Milano, and at the “Tschaikowsky Conservatory” in Kiew/Ucraina. Since 20 years Rita Hirner-Lill is member of the auditions for singers in the Jehudi Menuhin foundation LMN (Live Music Now) in Munich.

PROF. JULIETTE GALSTIAN - SWITZERLAND

Laureate of numerous International competitions, including Maria Callas Grand Prix (Greece), Julian Gayarre (Spain) and the winner of the Viotti Singing competition in Italy, Juliette Galstian performed during almost 20 years at the prestigious opera houses of the world: the Covent Garden, Opera Bastille, La Fenice, La Scala, Zurich opera, Geneva opera, Torino's Teatro Reggio, New National opera of Tokyo and others.

Being an established opera singer, she also sings mezzo-soprano parts at Requiems of Verdi, Mozart and Dvorak, Stabat Mater of Rossini and Pergolesi, collaborates with Symphonic and Chamber orchestras all over the world and loves performing recitals with a large selection of songs in nine languages. She was invited at the Salzburg, Colmar and Miscolz Festivals, and gave many concerts and recitals at New-York's BAM, London's Barbican, Bergen's Grieg halle, Brussels, Montreal, Vienna, Innsbruck, Paris, Geneva, Moscow, St.Petersburg, Antwerpen etc. She sang under the baton of James Conlon, Nikolaus Harnoncourt, William Christie, Michel Plasson, Adam Fisher, Evelino Pido, Vladimir Spivakov and others.

Her discography includes DVDs of Iphigénie en Tauride of Gluck (the title role) and Nina of Paisiello (role of Susanna) and the CD of Theodora of Handel (role of Irene) with les Arts Florissants and William Christie.

Juliette Galstian is a professor of singing at Geneva Conservatoire and is regularly invited to give masterclasses

PROF. MARIA GAMBORG HELBEKKMO - NORWAY

Maria Gamborg Helbekkmo is Professor Emeritus at Bergen University College, where she taught choir conducting, piano, and solo voice. Educated as a pianist, singer, and conductor, she has gained wide recognition as a musician and teacher, and is especially known for her work with the female choir Voci Nobili. Her determination, combined with her artistic abilities and her unique musical ambience, has helped turn Voci Nobili into a very highly-esteemed European choir with many honours to its name, including 11 International 1.prizes.

She did her piano studies with Eline Nygaard (Oslo), Béla Siki (Seattle) as Adele Marcus (Juilliard School of Music, New York). Her vocal studies were with Ellen Sundby (Bergen), Paul Lohmann (Wiesbaden) and Gunvor Mjelva (Oslo), and her conducting studies were with Knut Nystedt (Oslo) and Eric Ericsson (Stockholm).

Maria G. Helbekkmo made her debut as a concert pianist in 1972 in Oslo. She has held several concerts for Concerts Norway (Rikonsertene), Norwegian Broadcasting (NRK), and at Troidhaugen – Edvard Grieg’s home. She has been a piano soloist with different Norwegian Orchestras; Trondheim Symphonie Orchestra, Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra. As a singer she has worked as a freelancer for the Norwegian Broadcasting for several years, creating music programmes for children, in radio and TV. Additionally she has held more than 500 concerts on tour in Norway and Sweden.

MATHILDE RUUD

Mathilde Ruud (16) comes from Stavanger, Norway. Through the years I have played the violin for six years, piano for two (now, also at school) as well as the guitar.

I have been singing all my life, and 12 of the years have included singing in different choirs. 4 years in a children’s choir, 2 years in a youth choir, and now I am in my 6th year in VIVA, “Sandnes Kulturskole’s” choir, where I sing 1st soprano, and for some songs I sing alto and second alto. I now attend a music school situated in Sandnes, called Vaagen. It’s my first year, and so far I’m loving it. At this school my main instrument is singing. During my time in VIVA I have also received private singing instruction by the conductor, Liv Hugstmyr Særheim. VIVA will attend the Grieg International Choir Festival, which for me will be the third time. Back in 2011 we won, an amazing experience. Thanks to VIVA I have amazing experience from South Africa, USA, Scotland, Sweden, Cuba, the Czech Republic, Poland and so on. In these different countries we’ve had several concerts, for example in New York we attended the world premiere of Gloria, by Kristian Grases, in Carnegie Hall.

SILJE MØRCH

Silje Mørch (22) started singing in a choir at the age of ten, and began taking singing lessons at the age of fourteen. She studied at Lillestrøm upper secondary School, music branch, from 2009 to 2012 with singing as main instrument. Then she spent one year at “Toneheim Folkehøgskole”, and one year at Fjellhaug international upper secondary School. She is currently in her first year at the Grieg Academy studying singing.

In 2011 she received “Drømmestipendet” (given by “Norsk kulturråd” and “Norsk Tipping”). Silje has twice participated in the competition National Youth Artists Championship (Ungdommens Musikkmeesterskap), where she the second time won the 1st prize, and also an inspiration prize.

STEFFEN SIGGERVÅG SORTLAND

Steffen Siggervåg Sortland (19) comes from Bømlo, in Hordaland, Norway. He has had singing and music as a hobby for many years, but it was not until his first year at Stord upper secondary school he really became interested in classical singing. Afterwards he has made great progress, and has decided to aim for a career in classical singing. This year he is studying at “Toneheim Folkehøgskole”.

SUNNIVA UNSGÅRD

Sunniva Unsgård (23) has studied classical singing at NTNU, Institute for Music with prof. Kåre Bjørkøy, and at Hochschule für Musik Hanns Eisler, Berlin, with prof. Norma Sharp. Anne Margrethe Dahl (The Royal Danish Music Academy) and prof. Elisabeth Nordberg-Schultz (Rogaland Music Academy). She has for example played parts in «Tryllefloyten» by Mozart, in «Tolvskillingsoperaen» by Brecht / Weill, in «Olav Engelbrektsson» by Sommerro, and in «Der Tod Jesu» by Graun (soprano solo).

SUSANN KLUBBEN

Susann Klubben (19) is a young woman who sings classical music. I have sung in different choirs, and I am now currently singing in the Norwegian National Youth Choir (NUK), and have been there a year. I have sung in three different choirs, the local youth choir “Fjell kulturskulekor” for 5 years, the Welsh choir Cardiff County & Vale of Glamorgan Youth Choir for 1 year, and now I am singing in NUK. I have also taken vocal training lessons for 4.5 years. My singing teacher has helped me develop my voice, and is motivating me to rehearse and improve further. I also play in a rhythmical band, and occasionally sing with the local youth choir in concerts and on other special occasions. I started singing classical music in 2013 and have continued since then, but I still sing other types of music like jazz and songs from musicals.

SYNNE MARIE RUI VINJE

Synne Marie Rui Vinje (21) comes from Oslo. She started singing at «Bærum Musikk- og Kulturskole» with Randi Gunn Tanem as vocal teacher, and continued singing studies with Åshild Kyvik Bauge as teacher.
